MAYOR/COUNCIL/COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Mayor Sneath discussed bylaw enforcement and wanted to look into ways to enforce bylaws with the most results and the least conflict. He asked the administrator to contact other resort villages to find a way that is most effective, and to contact the town of Fort Qu’Appelle to inquire about contracting their officer. Mayor Sneath discussed that he met again with a local landscaper to put together a scope of work that is required for installation of sprinklers to have an idea of what we are looking for when obtaining quotes from other companies.

Councilor Korpan reported that he attended a calling lakes planning district commission Meeting. Councilor Korpan also discussed with council a few resolutions that the District Of Katepwa would like to bring forward to the Municipalities of Saskatchewan with regards to monitoring water quality in or lakes and rivers, and establishing a wetland policy in our province. This will be brought up at the next CLPC meeting.
